STEVENS POINT, Wis.— On Sunday, State Senator and Senate President Pro Tempore, Patrick Testin, completed his statewide Oktoberfest Tour and kickoff for his lieutenant gubernatorial campaign. Over the course of the week, he met with hundreds of supporters at events taking place in Wausau, Waukesha, Madison, La Crosse, Green Bay, Eau Claire, Hudson, and Milwaukee.

Upon completing the tour, he announced that since his entrance into the race for Lieutenant Governor on October 26, he has raised over $175,000 in support of his campaign from supporters across Wisconsin. A figure that is nearly 80% of the total primary contributions raised by the highest-grossing Republican primary candidate for Lieutenant Governor in Wisconsin history.

Upon releasing these figures, Testin made the following statement: “Since announcing my candidacy for Lieutenant Governor of Wisconsin, I have been overwhelmed by the support I have received from all corners of the state. Wisconsin Republicans are ready to get back into the business of winning, and we won’t sit on the sidelines any longer while the Evers Administration’s policies harm our families and state. We stand ready to unite as a party and a movement to fight to bring back commonsense, conservative governance to all Wisconsinites.”
