“Chancellor Blank has been a staunch advocate for the University of Wisconsin-Madison, and for public higher education more generally, during her almost nine years as chancellor. Her willingness to work with faculty, staff, and students through shared governance, and to work tirelessly with the University of Wisconsin System Board of Regents, the Wisconsin Legislature, and the Governor’s office has been admirable. PROFS’ partnership with Chancellor Blank has been strong, and while we have not always agreed, we have appreciated her willingness to work with the faculty for the best outcomes for UW-Madison.”
