“We were proud to endorse both Mandela Barnes and Chris Larson as the bold progressive champions in this previously 9-person race. With Chris Larson’s big move today, Mandela Barnes is the consensus choice for those who want another bold progressive champion representing Wisconsin in the U.S. Senate alongside Tammy Baldwin. Wisconsin is showing progressives around the nation how to unify early around a unity candidate so we can win big races. Our thousands of members in Wisconsin and nearly million members nationally will be all in to ensure Mandela Barnes wins the primary and defeats extremist Senator Ron Johnson in 2022, running on issues that create opportunity for hard-working families like Medicare For All and a job-creating Green New Deal paid for by taxing the ultra-wealthy.” — Progressive Change Campaign Committee
