

Rep. Dallman: Seeking nominations for First Responder of the Year Award

Posted on Wednesday, Sep 22, 2021

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

Madison, WI — State Representative Alex Dallman announced details of the First Responder Recognition Program ceremony which will take place on the Assembly floor during the week of October 26th. Each district recipient will be awarded with a Hometown Hero citation as part of First Responders Appreciation Month.

“I am pleased to seek a nomination from your municipality for the upcoming 2021-22 First Responder of the Year Award for the 41st Assembly District” said Representative Dallman. “If you know a distinguished first responder, whether it be an EMS worker, police officer, or firefighter who has shown heroism, professional achievement, or has an dedicated length of service, please take a minute to nominate them for First Responder of the Year by visiting my website or by sending me an email at Rep.Dallman@legis.wisconsin.gov.”

The winner from within the 41st district will then be invited to a Hometown Heroes recognition ceremony in the Assembly chambers during the week of October 26th.

“Remember the deadline for nominations is October 8th, so please act soon!” said Representative Dallman. “Thank you for your consideration as we honor the men and women who selflessly perform their duties to our local communities.”