MADISON – Representative Dianne Hesselbein (D – Middleton) released the following statement congratulating Leader-elect Representative Greta Neubauer (D – Racine):

“I wish Representative Neubauer great success as she leads our caucus into the future. I have watched and supported Representative Neubauer’s incredible career as a rising-star among us. She is extraordinarily smart, energetic, and knows how to inspire a new generation of leaders. I could not be more pleased to continue to serve in a caucus with Representative Neubauer at the helm.”

Representative Hesselbein also released the following statement congratulating her successor Assistant Leader-elect Representative Kalan Haywood (D – Milwaukee):

“Serving as Assistant Leader for the past five years has been a true honor. Representative Haywood is a passionate advocate for his constituents and the people of our state. He has been a team player for our caucus and will undoubtedly provide the commitment it takes to be successful in this role. I look forward to working with Representative Haywood in the coming months to help with the process of transferring leadership.”
