OSHKOSH — Rep. Hintz released the following statement in response to the Kyle Rittenhouse verdict:

“My thoughts are with the loved ones of Anthony Huber and Jojo Rosenbaum, who were killed by Kyle Rittenhouse on August 25, 2020. Both men should still be alive today.

“I urge all Wisconsinites to support continued healing for the people of Kenosha and to reimagine what true justice and safety look like in Wisconsin. Let us all work to transform this painful moment into a turning point in ensuring accountability in public safety, addressing systemic racism in our state, and prioritizing true justice and healing in Wisconsin.

“This ruling is a green light for these types of people to instigate violence, only to use violence to escape accountability.”
