MADISON – State Representative Jessie Rodriguez (R – Oak Creek) took the oath of office during an Inauguration Day ceremony in the Assembly Chambers Monday afternoon. The ceremony marks the beginning of her fifth term representing the 21st Assembly District in the 105th Wisconsin State Legislature.

“I’m humbled that the people of the 21st Assembly District have sent me back to Madison to represent their interests in the new legislative session. Serving my constituents has always been my priority as a legislator, and I am honored to continue to have the opportunity to be a voice for the members of my community,” said Rodriguez.

Rep. Rodriguez is one of 60 Republicans sworn into the Assembly for the 2021-2022 legislative session.

“My Assembly colleagues and I will begin this legislative session focusing on the health and well-being of Wisconsinites. We will work to revive and grow our state’s economy and provide assistance to businesses,” said Rep. Rodriguez.

The representative's office is located at 321 East in the Wisconsin State Capitol. She can be reached at (608) 266-0610 or by e-mail at Rep.Rodriguez@legis.wisconsin.gov. Her legislative website can be found at RepRodriguez.com.
