Over the past year, hard-working and dedicated Wisconsinites showed up to work during the pandemic. On the other hand, it seems Maryland Representative Jamie Raskin, via Pocan's request, was doing more to represent Wisconsin's 2nd Congressional District over the past year than Pocan.

Despite having earlier access to the Covid-19 vaccine than nearly all his constituents, Pocan repeatedly filed to have Raskin as his proxy since he was "unable to physically attend proceedings due to the ongoing health emergency". Furthermore, he conveniently revoked and invoked this as it seemed to fit his schedule. This is all public information.

- ☐ July 25 th , 2020 Proxy Filing
- ☐ August 21 st , 2020 Proxy Filing

- ☐ September 11 th , 2020 Proxy Filing
- ☐ January 15, 2021 Proxy Filing
- ☐ April 19 th , 2021 Proxy Filing

Via recent, derogatory tweets, Pocan has claimed he has been representing us consistently over the last year, but his filings suggest otherwise. Either he is not terribly interested in representing us or he is signing and filing proxy papers falsely. Which is it?

The voters of the 2 nd Congressional District deserve an answer from Representative Pocan
