Madison, WI – Senator Mary Felzkowski (R-Tomahawk) will be hosting a series of listening sessions around the district in the coming weeks to gather feedback on the proposed 2021-23 State Budget. 4 of the 12 planned listening sessions will take place this coming Friday, March 19th.

The Senator, a member of the Joint Finance Committee (JFC), is eager to hear from constituents about budget provisions they support or oppose and gather feedback on what JFC should focus on as they begin working on the budget.

Senator Felzkowski will be joined by Reps. Calvin Callahan (R-Tomahawk) and Rob Swearingen (R-Rhineland) in their respective districts.
