MADISON – State Senator Dan Feyen (R- Fond du Lac) will host in-district office hours on Wednesday, September 27th from 10 am – noon at his district office located inside the Fond du Lac Police Department.

The meeting on Sept. 27th will provide an opportunity for constituents to discuss concerns or request assistance with state government. The meeting will be the first of several in-district office hours with additional locations throughout the district to be announced in the coming weeks.

“With the Legislature gearing up for fall, now is a great opportunity for those that I serve to meet with me one-on-one and discuss any issues or concerns they have related to state government. All constituents are welcome and I look forward to these discussions,” said Feyen.

No appointment is necessary and the meeting is open to all 18th Senate District residents. Full event details including date, time, and location are included below.

Constituents unable to attend may contact Sen. Feyen’s Madison office at: (608) 266-5300; or by email at: Sen.Feyen@legis.wi.gov.
