Madison – Today, after more than 20 years in office, Sen. Erpenbach announce he will not be seeking reelection in 2022. Senator Kelda Roys issued the following statement:

“It has been an honor to work with Sen. Erpenbach in the state senate, and as my state senator when I served in the Assembly. He has served our community for over 20 years. He deserves particular credit for his unwavering support for our state’s public workers and his efforts to make healthcare accessible and affordable to all Wisconsinites.

“Sen. Erpenbach has always had the best interests of those he represented in mind each day he worked in the Capitol. He will be greatly missed in our caucus, and I extend a heartfelt thank you to Sen. Erpenbach and his staff for their work.”
