Lake Delton, WI —Representative Alex Dallman and Senator Joan Ballweg had the honor of presenting a citation to Patrol Officer Daniel Hess for his retirement from the Lake Delton Police Department.

Daniel started serving the community of Lake Delton in 1989, and served 23 years as a Ranger Instructor, while also providing valuable education to officers across the state by serving as the Lake Delton Police Department's Field Training Officer for 30 years and having the leadership qualities to preside as Director of Patrol for the Wisconsin Field Training Officer's Association.

Representative Dallman provided the following remarks, "We are proud to recognize Daniel's selfless actions for the Lake Delton community. We wish him nothing but the best as he starts this new adventure into retirement."
