JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN — Today, the Steil for Wisconsin campaign announced that the committee raised more than $439,000 during the third quarter of 2021. With a little over a year to go until the election next November, the campaign now has $1,198,264 cash on hand.

“I’m thankful for the overwhelming support our campaign continues to receive from people across Southeast Wisconsin. Big Government policies and reckless spending coming out of Washington threaten our way of life. Families and workers in Wisconsin and across our nation are seeing the negative impacts of Government overreach, out-of-control spending, rising prices, open borders, and a lack of competent leadership from the White House. It’s vital that we continue to push back against radical policies and we must come together to advance commonsense, conservative solutions. I will continue to fight for our home state, our rights, and our freedoms,” said Congressman Bryan Steil.
