WASHINGTON, D.C. – Rep. Mike Gallagher (R-WI) today released the following statement after a New York Times report indicated John Kerry had discussed Israeli operations with Iranian Foreign Minister Mohammad Javad Zarif.

“It’s unfathomable that any U.S. diplomat, past or present, would leak intelligence to the world’s leading sponsor of terrorism at the expense of one of our staunchest allies. If this report is accurate and he did leak intelligence, John Kerry should resign.”
