MADISON, WI—U.S. Representative Mark Pocan (WI-02) will hold a town hall in Madison on Thursday, July 8 with State Representative Francesca Hong (WI-76) to speak directly with Wisconsinites and answer questions about critical state and federal issues. Following brief opening remarks, Rep. Pocan and Rep. Hong will take questions from members of the community in attendance.

The town hall is open to the public and may RSVP here, although no RSVP is required. All visitors will be temperature checked and screened upon entry in the Goodman Community Center building. Masks are required to be worn upon entry and in all public areas. Vaccinated individuals will not be required to wear masks in the town hall meeting room.

Members of the media are welcome to join the event and are encouraged to list the town hall in your website's community calendar, as well as announce it in your paper or on your news program.
