Steil Statement on Biden's Visit to Wisconsin

WASHINGTON, D.C.—Congressman Bryan Steil (WI-01) released a statement on President Biden's visit to Wisconsin.

"While President Biden is in Wisconsin today, I hope he takes note of the "Help Wanted" signs across the state. The worker shortage is a direct consequence of costly, inefficient policies from Washington. While Pelosi and Biden's policies have brought us to this point, Governor Evers can act and end the federal incentive keeping Wisconsin workers at home. The government needs to get out of the way and get workers back to work. I will continue supporting our communities and opposing wasteful, inefficient policies from the Biden administration," said Steil.

Last month, Steil joined members of the Wisconsin delegation to call on Governor Evers to end the federal unemployment plus-up hindering workers' ability to return to the workforce.
