WASHINGTON, DC - Today, Congressman Bryan Steil (WI-01) issued a statement after voting no on the first portion of Speaker Pelosi and President Biden’s spending spree.

“Today, I voted against the so-called infrastructure portion of Speaker Pelosi and President Biden’s $3 trillion spending agenda. We should be making investments in our nation’s infrastructure, but through a smart, targeted approach that is focused on real infrastructure. Unfortunately, this bill is not paid for, will fund Green New Deal subsidies, and only directs a small portion of spending towards improving our roads and bridges. I will continue voting against wasteful spending in Washington and protect Southeast Wisconsin families’ pocketbooks.”
