WASHINGTON, DC - Today, Congressman Bryan Steil (WI-01) issued a statement after voting against President Biden and Speaker Pelosi's massive government expansion and spending bill.

"We cannot continue to ignore the priorities of the American people. At a time when prices are rising, employers are struggling to find workers, and our border is wide open, President Biden and Speaker Pelosi are rushing through trillions of dollars in new social spending that will increase the size, scale, and scope of our federal government. We need to get workers back to work and return fiscal sanity to Washington, DC, not approve new spending that will saddle our nation for decades."
