WASHINGTON — On Thursday, U.S. Sen. Ron. Johnson (R-Wis.) joined Fox News' "Hannity" to discuss President Biden's radical agenda that is weakening America, from his disastrous foreign policy of appeasement to failed domestic policies such as open borders.

Excerpts of the interview are below, and full video here.

On corrupt business dealings:

"Joe Biden outright lied to the American public, repeatedly, about the fact that he didn't discuss with Hunter the overseas business transactions — but we proved they lied in our report, and we uncovered a vast web of foreign financial entanglements that should have troubled every American."

On Biden's radical policies:

"What really concerns me is all the policies that 'moderate' Joe Biden is enacting — no, radical Joe Biden — is weakening America: The spending spree, the massive trillion dollars of deficits that he's already pushed and proposed. But what he's proposing in the future — another four, five, six trillion dollars more — it weakens America. The fact that we have open borders weakens America, and of course the Nord Stream 2 pipeline: Waiving the sanctions on that will put enormous geopolitical pressure on Ukraine and other European nations, and really put Vladimir Putin in the driver's seat from that standpoint."

"Over the last three months we've apprehended about 6,000 people per day each and every day for the last three months, and we have probably about a thousand got-aways that we know about. We don't know how many other people get away. As you are pointing out, the human depredations, the inhumanity to those individuals that are in the hands of human traffickers, the sex slaves, the involuntary servitude — Biden knows all of these things, and yet he's still basically facilitating that evil business model, the multibillion-dollar business model of some of the most evil people on the planet.”
