PRAIRIE DU CHIEN, WI – The National Republican Congressional Campaign committee announced the first round of Candidates admitted to their Young Guns program, a program that has a record of success in helping Republican candidates get elected to the House of Representatives.

Derrick Van Orden was among the 32 candidates recognized as “On The Radar,” the initial step in the program designed to help build successful campaigns. In the 2020 cycle, Derrick was elevated to “Young Gun,” the highest level of the program with rigorous benchmarks that make those candidates among the most competitive in the nation.
