PRAIRIE DU CHIEN, WI - Today, the House of Representatives passed Joe Biden and Nancy Pelosi's Big Government Spending Bill that will kill jobs, raise every American's cost of living, and build on the already out of control inflation that is making this holiday season the most expensive we've seen.

Derrick Van Orden responded to the bill's passage today:

"This Big Government Socialist Spending Bill is just further evidence that the slow walk to socialism has become a 100 yard sprint in Joe Biden and Nancy Pelosi's America. Families can't buy gas and groceries on the same day, people are going to have trouble heating their homes this winter because of increasing costs, and the Washington Democrat plan to handle inflation is to spend trillions more. This is irresponsible governing at its peak, and it's why we need to flip the House and fire Pelosi in November."
