PRAIRIE DU CHIEN, WI – This morning, news broke regarding money Ron Kind made from renting a building in La Crosse to Asian Sunny Massage, a massage parlor that had a history of posting on websites advertising illicit sex.

The social media pages for Asian Sunny Massage, according to the report, also had a history of highlighting that the masseuses were “young” and sharing suggestive images of them.

Derrick Van Orden released the following statement in response to the report:

“Today’s report is incredibly disturbing and opens the door to many more questions that need to be answered. I fully support law enforcement and encourage them to investigate this business to uncover any potential illegal activity.

This industry has been proven to be a component of human sex trafficking, the scourge of the 21st century and modern day slavery. It is all of our duties as Americans to help stop these heinous crimes from taking place here in our state and nation.”
