

Watch WisPolitics.com video from last year marking Earth Day's 50th anniversary

Posted on Thursday, Apr 22, 2021

Earth Day: The Next 50 Years

WisPolitics.com held a virtual lunchtime event on Tuesday, April 21 entitled "Earth Day: the Next 50 Years."

Headlining the hour-long discussion was Lt. Gov. Mandela Barnes, chair of the Governor's Task Force on Climate Change, and state Rep. Mike Kuglitsch, R-New Berlin, chair of the Assembly Committee on Energy and Utilities, and a member of the task force.

WisPolitics.com interview with Tia Nelson

WisPolitics.com President Jeff Mayers interviewed Tia Nelson, managing director of climate at the Outrider Foundation, in April 20 as the world marked the 50-year anniversary of Earth Day. Nelson is the daughter of Earth Day founder U.S. Sen. Gaylord Nelson.