MADISON — Gov. Tony Evers and First Lady Kathy Evers today delivered the Democratic Radio Address wishing Wisconsinites a merry Christmas ahead of this weekend's holiday.

Hey folks, Governor Tony Evers here.

And I'm First Lady Kathy Evers.

We wanted to take a moment today to wish you a very merry Christmas.

Whether you're going door-to-door singing carols, decorating cookies, or watching your family's favorite Christmas movies, we hope you have a chance to spread cheer and joy and share the gift of giving with others.

From our family to yours, we send our warmest wishes and wish you safe and happy holiday.

Merry Christmas!
