Oak Creek, WI — With more than a year left on the campaign trail, gubernatorial candidate Jonathan Wichmann has secured a monumental endorsement with that of retired General Michael Flynn.

“I’m here to fully endorse Jonathan Wichmann to be the next Governor of the great state of Wisconsin.” Flynn stated.

Retired US Army Lt. General Flynn has an extensive, accomplished military background with over 30 years in uniform and having previously served as the Director of the Defense Intelligence Agency and as a national security advisor under former President Donald Trump.

Wichmann is a Wisconsin native and local businessman running to oust Governor Tony Evers in the 2022 election. His campaign focuses on freedom and prosperity for Wisconsin.

In his video endorsement, Flynn explained why he was endorsing Jonathan Wichmann to be the next governor of Wisconsin: “The people of Wisconsin are terrific people, you are the lifeblood and fabric of our country. You represent everything our country stands for: life liberty and the pursuit of happiness. I’m endorsing Jonathan because he demonstrates extraordinary leadership. He is exactly the type of person we need. He is all about health freedom, he is all about protecting our rights, especially our 2nd Amendment.”

Of the endorsement Wichmann said, “I am both humbled and honored to have General Flynn’s endorsement. I am grateful to have received it and thank General Flynn for his vote of confidence in my leadership capabilities.”

Wichmann was the first GOP candidate to declare candidacy and challenge current Wisconsin Governor Tony Evers for the 2022 gubernatorial election.
