

Winterfest at Thornberry Creek at Oneida

Posted on Thursday, Feb 25, 2021

Oneida, WI – Thornberry Creek at Oneida will be hosting our first ever Winterfest on Saturday, February 27, 2021 from 12 – 5pm at 4470 N Pine Tree Rd Oneida, WI 54155

This family friendly event is free to attend and will host activities such as horse and carriage rides presented by Oneida Tourism, a snowshoe trail (weather dependent), children's games, crafts and other outdoor fun. Food trucks will be on site and a variety of hot and cold beverages will be offered throughout the day. The event will allow guests to spend time both outdoors or inside providing a safe space to spread out and be active.

The Brrrr Family Fun Run will take place at 12:00 noon and will travel the scenic cart path through holes 1, 2 and 18 of the Legends Course. Registration is $10 to participate in the fun run and can be completed online prior to the event.

At 5pm the Winter Beer Garden and Luminary Walk will open and live music will be performed by Michael Saint presented by Bay Bank in the TCO Taproom. This portion of the event includes local craft beer, food trucks and a candlelight walking path through holes 1,2 and 18 of the scenic Legends Course.

“Thornberry Creek at Oneida is excited to be able to host this event for our community. We have been seeing great interest from our neighbors to host creative events and hope to be able to continue to provide safe and fun opportunities for families to gather throughout the year,” says Chelsea Kocken, Director, Sales and Marketing.
