MADISON – Wisconsin Farm Bureau Federation President Kevin Krentz issued the following statement on the announcement U.S. Senator Tammy Baldwin being named the chair of the Senate Appropriations Subcommittee on Agriculture, Rural Development, Food and Drug Administration.

“Wisconsin farmers have faced a tremendous amount of adversity over the last year. Having Sen. Baldwin as a leading voice for Wisconsin’s farmers in Washington will amplify rural voices to build a stronger agriculture economy. We look forward to working with Sen. Baldwin to improve our rural economies and secure our food supply chains.”

Wisconsin Farm Bureau Federation is the state’s largest general farm organization representing farms of every size, commodity and management style.
