MADISON - Wisconsin Property Taxpayers, Inc. today released the following statement regarding Rep. Jeremy Thiesfeldt's announcement of his last term:

"Whether advocating for K-12 kids deserving of a world-class education, parents demanding education freedom, or property taxpayers expecting better returns on their investment, Representative Thiesfeldt always asks the tough questions, demands more accountability, and pushes for results driven solutions," said John Jacobson, Government & Member Relations Director. "Our members truly appreciate and will miss his tenacity for prioritizing students and policy over politics. We wish him and his family health and happiness in all their future endeavors."
