

Wisconsin Technology Council: Dealing with China' will launch series on trade policy with WisBusiness.com

Posted on Friday, Apr 16, 2021

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

“Dealing with China,” a panel discussion on U.S.-China relations under the Biden administration, will be held virtually from noon to 1 p.m., Tuesday, April 27. It is being produced by WisBusiness.com in partnership with the Wisconsin Technology Council.

Participants the discussion, which will focus on national security, economics and higher education, will be: U.S. Rep. Kind, D-La Crosse, U.S. Rep. Gallagher, R-Green Bay, Bonnie S. Glaser, director of the Asia program for The German Marshall Fund of the United States, and Steve Ackerman, the vice chancellor for research and graduate education at UW-Madison.

The event will begin with a moderated panel discussion and then shift to questions from the audience. Register here; you will be sent a link to access the webinar on the morning of the event.

Sponsors are Michael Best Strategies and the Wisconsin District Export Council. More programming will be announced throughout the year.

The April 27 event is also part of the UW Center for East Asian Studies' East Asia Now series (<https://eastasia.wisc.edu/east-asia-now-series/>), which is partially supported by a Title VI grant from the U.S. Department of Education.

The Tech Council works with WisBusiness.com on other projects, such as “WisBusiness.com: The Show.” To join the Tech Council, go to www.-wisconsintechcouncil.com or call 608-442-7557.