

Wisconsin's vaccine registry to launch March 1

Posted on Friday, Feb 19, 2021

Today's Midday podcast covers the Department of Health Services launching a vaccine registry service March 1, when the next eligible groups can start scheduling a vaccination. Stephanie Hoff and Adam Kelnhofer also discuss state health officials proclaiming Wisconsin is "on a roll" administering over 1 million doses of the COVID-19 vaccine.