AG Josh Kaul Delivers for Wisconsin Workers

MADISON, Wis. — Yesterday, Attorney General Josh Kaul announced that a settlement had been reached for payment of over $650,000 to former SEMCO, Inc. employees who lost their jobs after the company suddenly shut down.

Attorney General Kaul's announcement is a stark contrast with reporting last week about Senator Ron Johnson's fight to get a tax break benefiting himself and Republican mega-donors included in the 2017 GOP tax scam. In response, Democratic Party of Wisconsin Chair Ben Wikler issued the following statement:

“While Republicans like Ron Johnson are looking out for themselves and their billionaire buddies, Democrats like Josh Kaul are delivering real results for Wisconsin workers. We need leaders like Josh Kaul who fight for all of us, not politicians like Ron Johnson who is only out for himself and works to tilt the system even further in favor of the wealthy and powerful.”
