Eau Claire, Wis. — Yesterday, Wisconsin Farmers Union President Darin Von Ruden blasted Ron Johnson for voting against the bipartisan infrastructure bill that Johnson admitted he never read despite the fact it will be a boon to the state's agriculture sector.

WKBT: “‘It would be nice if Senator Johnson would really look at what his votes are doing to the state of Wisconsin.’ The infrastructure bill provides ‘the support we need to help our farms and businesses grow and be better equipped to provide for our families and communities...Ron Johnson was soundly against even discussing what this bill could do for the agriculture sector in our state and is clearly in Washington to serve himself and those who can pay to play,’ Von Ruden said.”
