[Racine, WI] - Following the Racine County Sheriff's Office announcement that the Wisconsin Election Commission violated the law on election administration in nursing homes, the Republican Party of Wisconsin released the following statement from Chairman Paul Farrow:

"Anyone who cares at all about election integrity owes the Racine County Sheriff's Department a debt of gratitude for their work today. It is horrific that WEC's choice to violate state laws may have led to bad actors taking advantage of vulnerable citizens in nursing homes. It's time for Democrats, the Department of Justice, and the mainstream media to take election integrity concerns seriously."
