[Madison, WI] – Today’s State of Education Address comes as districts like Appleton, Wausau, and Kenosha saw far more failing grades over the past year due to school closures and Tony Evers attacked school choice programs that help ensure a quality education for all Wisconsin students regardless of zip code.

The Republican Party of Wisconsin released the following statement from Executive Director Mark Jefferson:

“Wisconsin students are suffering from a year of learning loss, mass school closures, and Democrat leaders that are in the pocket of their teachers union donors. The state of education continues to get worse under teachers union puppets Jill Underly and Tony Evers.”
