[Bloomer, WI] – Today, Tom Vilsack is making a belated visit to rural Wisconsin – nearly six months after Joe Biden's embarrassing bait-and-switch trip to a La Crosse city bus station. The Republican Party of Wisconsin released the following statement from Communications Director Anna Kelly:

“It's no wonder that Tom Vilsack has been avoiding Wisconsin for the past six months. Try as he might to pander, Democrats' vaccine mandates, attacks on our Second Amendment, and crushing death taxes prove that liberals will always put coastal elites before Americans in the Heartland. Unfortunately for Democrats, rural Wisconsinites can discern bad policy as well as they can use a photocopier.”
