MADISON - Vice President Kamala Harris visits Milwaukee on the heels of 100 days of failure from the Biden administration. The Biden-Harris agenda has consisted of trillions of dollars in wasteful spending, tax hikes and a border crisis that the administration created yet refuses to address.

The Republican Party of Wisconsin released the following statement from Chairman Andrew Hitt ahead of Vice President Harris' visit to Milwaukee:

“Kamala Harris should be visiting the southern border, given it has been nearly a month and a half since being tasked with managing the border crisis, and she still has not found time to address a problem that has spiraled out of control. To make matters worse, she is coming to Wisconsin to promote Biden's wasteful $6 trillion tax and spending plan that will ruin the economic recovery and saddle our children with insurmountable debt.”
