

WisOpinion.com Poll: What should the state do with its larger-than-expected budget surplus?

Posted on Monday, Feb 1, 2021

Gov. Tony Evers will introduce a two-year budget plan on Feb. 16 as state tax revenue estimates soar to $1.2 billion more than what Evers' administration had expected just two months ago.

Where do you think extra tax money should go?

Please let us know by answering the poll below and leaving a comment.