

Women in Technology Wisconsin: “Crafting Inclusive Teams”

Posted on Tuesday, Jan 19, 2021

DON'T FORGET OUR NEXT EVENT:

Crafting Inclusive Teams

Friday, January 29, 2021 at 7:30 AM-9:00 AM

TO REGISTER FOR THIS EVENT VISIT: <http://www.witwisconsin.com/event-4108193>

LOCATION:

Virtual Meeting – an email will be sent on Thursday, December 28th with the Zoom link

MEETING AGENDA:

Meeting updates and speaker(s): 7:30am – 9am

EVENT DETAILS:

In a fast changing world, exceptional teams that adapt quickly and innovatively, are the ones that deliver exceptional results. In this session, learn how inclusion can help you to tap into the full potential of your team. Shift your perspective and elevate your conversations to break down barriers, minimize conflict and bring together people with diverse skills, viewpoints, and lived experiences to build exceptional teams.

About the presenter

Dr. Shalini Nag, president and people strategist at EvidaSolve, brings ~20 years of experience in business management consulting, scientific research and evidence-based teaching and learning methods, to a range of topics on business management and organizational culture. Her experience in curriculum and training design, group facilitation, individual mentoring and coaching has delivered measurable results at global clients across industries, ranging from Start-Ups to Fortune 500 companies. Creator of The Success Delta™ Shalini is a #1 International Bestselling author, a PI-certified talent optimization expert and SHRM recertification provider. An advocate for equity and justice, she is committed to equipping individuals, teams, and organizations to create inclusive, high-development environments to achieve their desired outcomes.