MADISON, Wis. - Americans for Prosperity-Wisconsin (AFP-WI) Deputy State Director Annette Olson issued the following statement congratulating state legislative candidates, Rachael Cabral-Guevara for State Senate, and for State Assembly - Ty Bodden, Nik Rettinger and Angie Sapik on advancing to the general election.

“Earlier this year, AFP-WI identified and endorsed strong, liberty-minded candidates for legislative office - each of which has demonstrated a strong commitment to principled policies, our constitutional rights, and standing up for liberty. Today, we are thrilled to congratulate these candidates on their primary victories.

“Our team of volunteers and activists worked across the state connecting with voters in their communities in support of these principled candidates. We commend all of these exceptional individuals for running for public office and are confident they will advance commonsense policy reforms in Wisconsin.”
