A new TV ad from Dem Mandela Barnes charges GOP U.S. Sen. Ron Johnson has failed to make things better during his 12 years in office.

According to AdImpact, the spot is running in the Milwaukee, Madison, Green Bay, Wausau and La Crosse/Eau Claire markets.

Barnes says in the ad he sees what people are doing to make it, but “people continue to be left behind.” He adds the Oshkosh Republican has had 12 years in office.

“But costs are still rising and all he’s managed to do is write a tax cut for himself,” Barnes says.

He adds, “I believe hard work can pay off, and I’ll never stop fighting until it does.”
