MADISON — Today, Lt. Governor Mandela Barnes, candidate for U.S. Senate, announced the Win for Wisconsin bus tour, a tour focused on uplifting the Wisconsin workers and families that Ron Johnson has left behind. Over the course of 16 days, Mandela will make 100 stops across the state to hold Ron Johnson accountable for his disastrous record of stripping women of their rights and voting against the interests of farmers, workers, small businesses, and families across Wisconsin.

Lt. Governor Mandela Barnes made the following statement:

“Ron Johnson has spent the last twelve years in office selling out the working people he was elected to represent in favor of serving his wealthy donors – and we won’t stand for it any longer. As the proud son of a union family, I know the promise of Wisconsin because I’ve lived it. And I’m running for the United States Senate to fight for our rights and give every person across this state the fair shot that Ron Johnson has denied them for too long.”

The Win for Wisconsin Tour will kick off on Monday, October 24 in Green Bay and will visit more than a dozen counties including Brown County, Outagamie County, Winnebago County, Milwaukee County, Racine County, Kenosha County, Waukesha County, Eau Claire County, Door County, Rock County, La Crosse County, Grant County, and Dane County.

First stops will include Green Bay, Appleton, Oshkosh, and more. Please reach out to press@mandelabarnes.com for details on stops near you.
