MADISON — Next week, on November 1st, Senator Cory Booker will return to Wisconsin to join Lt. Governor Mandela Barnes, candidate for U.S. Senate, on the campaign trail. As part of the "Win For Wisconsin" bus tour, Sen. Booker and Mandela will attend student voter events and Black voter engagement events in Milwaukee and Racine.

Lt. Governor Mandela Barnes, candidate for U.S. Senate, released the following statement:

"I couldn't be more excited to welcome Senator Cory Booker back to Wisconsin. Senator Booker is a great friend and a champion for working families. Together in the Senate, we'll fight to rebuild the middle class, expand women's rights, and finally hold accountable the corporations that Ron Johnson has prioritized during his time in Washington."
