(Madison, WI) – Charity Barry, Republican candidate for 2nd Congressional District of Wisconsin, announces she will hold a series of townhall meetings throughout the district that are open to the public. The townhall meetings will allow citizens to meet with Charity Barry and discuss issues of concern and ask questions about her approach to addressing these issues. “It is important that I make myself available as a candidate seeking to represent our communities in Congress. To allow citizens to meet with me and talk about the issues most impacting their lives and families and how these issues can be addressed from the federal government level. These townhall meetings are intended to give citizens access to me to accomplish that.” – Charity Barry
