JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN — Today, Congressman Bryan Steil's campaign announced that Steil raised over $719,000 into his campaign committees through the third quarter of 2022. The Steil for Wisconsin campaign reported over $1.84 million cash on hand with 25 days to go until the election, cementing Steil's strong position in his reelection bid to represent Wisconsin's First Congressional District.

Congressman Bryan Steil (WI-01) issued the following statement:

"I'm thankful for the strong support our campaign continues to receive as we work to spread our message to voters across the First District. Grassroots supporters from across Wisconsin have helped grow our movement as we work to reach every voter. When I go door to door, voters are concerned about the rising cost of living, higher energy costs, and crime. I'm working to lower prices and keep communities safe. On November 8th, we have the opportunity to put Wisconsin and our state back on track."

In the third quarter of this year, Steil raised $603,453 into his campaign account, $70,800 into the Steil Victory Fund, and $56,000 into his leadership fund, which Steil uses to help elect conservatives across Wisconsin and the nation.
