[Fox Crossing, WI] – Today, State Representative Paul Tittl (R-Manitowoc) announced his endorsement of Rachael Cabral-Guevara in her run for State Senate.

“Rep. Cabral-Guevara has been an outstanding representative, hardworking, caring, and very concerned about the people she represents. With that, I, Representative Paul Tittl enthusiastically endorse Rep. Cabral-Guevara in her bid for the state Senate,” Rep. Tittl stated.

Tittl currently represents the 25th Assembly District, specifically the cities of Manitowoc and Chilton, as well as the villages of Hilbert, Potter, Reedsville, St. Nazianz, Valders, and Whitelaw. He has been serving the district since 2012.

“I’m thankful for Rep. Tittl’s endorsement and have enjoyed serving as his vice chair on the Assembly Committee on Mental Health. I look forward to collaborating on mental health legislation in the upcoming sessions,” said Rep. Cabral-Guevara.
