

Clarke praises Nicholson in Fighting for Wisconsin PAC ad

Posted on Friday, May 20, 2022

The PAC backing Kevin Nicholson's bid for gov launched a new ad in which conservative former Milwaukee County Sheriff David Clarke Jr. says the GOP gov candidate "is not establishment."

Fighting for Wisconsin PAC said the buy was just less than $900,000 on broadcast TV in the Green Bay, La Crosse, Madison, Milwaukee and Wausau markets. Additionally, there is a cable, digital and radio component.

Clarke, who was elected to the office as a Democrat, in the ad says the former Marine will get things done in the office because "he works fast; he exhausts me."

"Get Kevin in that governor's chair and the conservative changes others only promise — safe streets, secure elections — will actually happen," Clarke says.

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.