

Common Ground: Invites community to engage in discussion about education

Posted on Monday, May 2, 2022

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

APPLETON, Wis. (May 2, 2022) - Common Ground, a community organization focused on influencing future change, is inviting the community to participate in an engaging workshop entitled School-Family-Community: Working to Support Children. Workshop participants will discuss creative ways to support the relationships between educators, parents and the community and address the diverse educational needs involved in shaping the future of our students.

Hosted by the Common Ground organization and led by trained community facilitators, this one-hour participatory, virtual event will take place Monday, May 9 at 11:30 a.m. and again at 6:30 p.m. In order to ensure a robust discussion with a variety of viewpoints, all community members are invited to attend.

This is the first of a series of Community Conversations planned by Common Ground. Additional opportunities around pertinent community topics will occur June 6, June 13, July 11, September 12, October 3, October 10, November 7 and November 14.

To learn more and register for Community Conversations visit commongroundfoxcities.org/community-conversations.