WASHINGTON, DC - Rep. Scott Fitzgerald (WI-05) issued the following statement after introducing a bipartisan House Resolution, signed by the entire Wisconsin House delegation, honoring the victims of the devastating attack of the Waukesha Christmas Parade:

“One year ago, the tragic attack on the Waukesha Christmas Parade took the lives of six individuals from our community. We will never forget that dark day, and will always remember those we lost, said Congressman Scott Fitzgerald. On this anniversary, we remember and cherish those no longer with us and pray for healing and peace for their families. Thank you to the rest of the Wisconsin House delegation for joining in honoring Virginia Sorenson, Tamara Durand, LeAnna Owen, Jane Kulich, Wilhelm Hospel, and Jackson Sparks.”
