Lancaster, WI — Justice Daniel Kelly continues to gain support from county sheriffs around the state. The latest endorsement comes from Grant County Sheriff Nate Dreckman.

“As a law enforcement officer, it’s very important to me that our constitutional rights are protected. I know that is also a priority for Justice Daniel Kelly. That’s why I support him in his effort to be elected to the Wisconsin Supreme Court.”

“Justice Kelly believes personal politics should have no place in the deliberations of the court. The only thing that matters is what the law outlines as written and how it applies to the case at hand without trying to second guess lawmakers. Please join me in supporting Justice Daniel Kelly for the Wisconsin Supreme Court.”

Sheriff Dreckman was appointed Grant County Sheriff by Governor Scott Walker in 2012 and has been reelected ever since. He’s served in law enforcement for the past 27 years and is the current President of the Badger State Sheriffs Association.
