BALSAM LAKE, Wis. — Polk County Sheriff Brent Waak, who was just reelected to a second four-year term, shares his endorsement of Justice Daniel Kelly in the race for Wisconsin Supreme Court with the following statement:

“In Polk County we pride ourselves on providing professional, ethical, and respectful law enforcement services to our citizens. Justice Daniel Kelly approached his previous term on the Wisconsin Supreme Court in much the same way. Respect for the law, ethical in his decision-making process and professional in his dealings with fellow justices and citizens. We need a justice like Daniel Kelly back on the Supreme Court and that’s why I am endorsing him.”

“Justice Kelly will leave policy making to the lawmakers and uphold the law and remain faithful to the Constitution. Join me in supporting Justice Daniel Kelly for the Wisconsin Supreme Court.”

Sheriff Brent Waak was reelected to a second four-year term as Polk County Sheriff on November 8, 2022. He’s served in law enforcement for the past 25 years.
